

Contents

1	Collecting and preserving factual evidence	1
	Why it is needed	1
	Maintaining accurate records	2
	Visual evidence	4
	Making reports	5
	Preserving evidence	6
2	Evidence required for most incidents	8
	Evidence list for most incidents	9
3	Evidence for incidents involving people	13
	Injury and illness	13
	Disciplinary action	17
	Industrial action	17
	Stowaways	18
	People in distress	18
	Humanitarian and other diversions	19
	Evidence lists for incidents involving people	19
4	Evidence for incidents involving cargo	26
	Seaworthiness	26
	Care of cargo	27
	Cargo responsibility	27
	Evidence lists for incidents involving cargo	29
5	Evidence for incidents caused by the ship	41
	Pollution	41
	Collision and damage to property	45
	Grounding, stranding and sinking	46
	Salvage and general average	46
	Evidence lists for incidents caused by ship	48

6	Evidence for hull and machinery incidents.....	61
	Evidence list for hull and machinery incidents .....	62
7	Evidence for commercial disputes .....	65
	New building warranty disputes .....	65
	Port delay disputes .....	66
	Performance disputes .....	67
	Ports and berth safety disputes .....	69
	Bunker disputes .....	70
	Evidence lists for commercial disputes .....	72
	Index .....	79