

Discipline	COMMERCIAL LAW code: 8 1st semester – /summer/
Specialty	Industrial Management
ECTS credits: 4	Form of assessment: Written and Oral Exam
Lecturer	Associate Professor, PhD /scientific title/ BEANETA VASILEVA /name/ Room 517 b/ 229 NUK Phone: +359 895527778 E-mail: b.vasileva@tu-varna.bg
Department	INDUSTRIAL MANAGEMENT
Faculty	MACHINE&TECHNOLOGICAL FACULTY
Learning objectives: The basic objectives of the course is to provide training field of business organizations, commercial transactions, bankruptcy. /ANNOTATION/ The discipline "Commercial Law" is a mandatory discipline in the specialty “Industrial Management“, Bachelor Degree. The program aims to acquaint students with the basic concepts of commercial law, types of traders, legal forms of the organizations regulated by the Commercial Law for conducting business, as well as for providing social services. Students also study the types of business transactions, ways of entering into, execution, and default responsibilities. The training course introduces students to the types of business transformation, the ways of moving their headquarters across borders, as well as the transformation between companies headquartered in the European Union countries or countries party to the EEA Agreement. Legal ways to terminate traders, liquidation and the nature of commercial bankruptcy are also being studied.
CONTENTS:
Training Area			Hours lectures
			Hours seminar exercises
A common doctrine for traders			10
Transactions and types of commercial transactions			2
Termination of traders			10
Bankruptcy			5
TOTAL: 45 h			30
			15