

MEANS AND METHODS OF ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION (18)

The students are trained in the basic principles to ensure marine environmental protection and marine pollution prevention – normative basis, organization, methods of marine pollution prevention.

Basic sections:

- normative basis of the problem
- organization, methods and means of marine pollution prevention
- operational requirements of the ship to avoid marine pollution
- ship organization for action in emergency in cases of oil spills
- port organization for ensuring the cleanness of the harbour areas